Who It Is For

-  Smartwatch users needing screen protection
-  Outdoor athletes with Garmin Forerunner 35
-  Those prioritizing clarity and scratch resistance
-  Users requiring additional case protection

Who It Is Not For

-  Users who don't need multiple screen protectors
-  Those avoiding waterproof accessories
-  Individuals preferring no additional case

Trade Offs to Consider

---

- Less durable than single-use protectors
- Case may not fit all watch models
- Potential for screen fogging in extreme weather

How It Compares

- 3-pack offers more protection than single units
- Silicone case provides better shock absorption than hard cases
- Includes both protector and case in one purchase

Choose This If...

- ✓ Need multiple screen protectors for backup
- ✓ Prioritize clarity and scratch resistance
- ✓ Require additional case protection

Skip This If...

- ✗ Don't need extra protectors or case
- ✗ Prefer separate purchase of protector and case
